Daily Student Expectations	Information for Parents
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students should join class through Google Meets each period to participate in the live lesson. All links and assignments will be located in Google Classroom. ● Students should submit assignments by the given due date. All assignments will be graded and feedback will be given through Google Classroom or via email. ● Plan to spend about 20 minutes per class in “live” learning sessions with teachers. Additional work time and closing activities are built into each class period. ● Schedule time during class work time or teacher office hours for virtual face-to-face meetings as needed ● View and complete the daily Second Step or advisory lesson ● Follow all school rules and acceptable use agreements for technology. ● Use video when attending class and arrive on time and dressed appropriately for school. ● Refrain from using inappropriate language or posting non-school related content. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● This schedule mirrors the in-person learning school day. Teachers will be available throughout each class period to give assistance to students. ● Parents may request a conference with a teacher during teacher planning times. ● It’s a good idea to break up the blocks of time and to take frequent breaks - being on the computer for hours is hard! ● Daily attendance will be taken in each class. Teachers will communicate with you if a student is not attending class. ● Students may schedule one-on-one virtual sessions with teachers. Teachers will communicate their availability in Google Classroom. ● All assignments will be graded and returned with feedback. ● Tests and assessments will be administered during scheduled class meeting times. Students will be required to take the test in a Google Meet to ensure academic honesty. ● Administrators and our Counselor are available by email Monday - Friday, 8:00 - 4:00. We can also schedule a call or virtual meeting with you or your students. Here is a link to the Counseling Request Form. This form is for students and parents to request a meeting with the counselor.
